1. General Emilio Diaz de Vivar, who was recently sent to Buenos Aires by Paraguayan Provisional President Federico Chaves for the purpose of reopening negotiations for a trade agreement between the two countries,* was received by Argentine President Peron on 15 December at which time a mutual desire for improved trade relations was discussed. Cooperation between the two countries' police forces also received consideration at the meeting.
2. Former Paraguayan Presidents Higinio Morinigo and Natalicio Gonzalez greeted Diaz de Vivar by telephone. He was scheduled to return to Asuncion on the afternoon of 16 December.
